

Women, Take the Power!

Join us for a free life and financial planning event for lesbian, bisexual, and transgender women.

Thursday, April 2

Panel and Discussion: 6:30 - 8 pm

Reception: 8 - 9 pm

The Center, 1st floor
208 W. 13th Street
New York, NY

“My mother died at 46. She didn’t have a will. I want to make sure my family is provided for if I die or become ill.”

Martha E. Stark, Finance Commissioner for New York City

Lesbian, bisexual, transgender women and women living with HIV, have to take extra steps to protect ourselves and our families. Come discuss second parent adoptions, wills, healthcare proxies, debt management, tips for surviving today’s economy and more! This event is for all women, including those who are working class, low-income, elders and/or living with a life-challenging illness.

Free - Light refreshments - Children welcome

Panelists:

Terry Boggis, Director of Center Kids, The Center

Natalie Chin, Staff Attorney, Lambda Legal

Virginia Goggin, Orrick Legal Fellow, LGBT Law Project at NYLAG

Alicia Heath-Toby, Program Coordinator, Lesbian AIDS Project/Women’s Institute at Gay Men’s Health Crisis

Denise Liggett, Financial Planner

Please RSVP to dpatenaude@lambdalegal.org or 212-809-8585 x249

